More yards per carry.

Our mileage ingredients are one reason. NC-7 is another. Only Sinclair has it.

NC-7 controls harmful engine deposits. Keeps your engine in shape.

And when your engine's in shape, you get even more miles per gallon. Naturally.

Oregon's Autzen Stadium

The Stadium at Oregon -- A Dream Come True

Autzen Stadium, one of the country's finest collegiate football sites and dedicated at the Ohio State-Oregon game last season, began as a dream 20 years ago.

In 1947 it was recognized that a growing university and community would need a larger and more modern facility than the former Hayward Field provided. The first major breakthrough toward building the stadium as it now stands came in 1959 when civic leaders approached former president O. Meredith Wilson, and Leo A. Harris, now retired athletic director regarding purchase of a 90-acre tract.

Athletic department reserves were used to buy the land and President Wilson authorized formation of a citizen's committee to raise $1,000,000 and study the type of stadium to be built.

Financing of Autzen stadium was unique in an era when most new stadia carry a long term mortgage or bond indebtedness. Oregon's new facility is paid for as it stands and future improvements will also be on a cash basis.

The normal sources of some portion of the construction budget — revenue bonds, special assortments against student fees, state appropriated funds — were simply not available and the entire construction budget came from two sources — gifts and reserves.

Gifts from all sources amounted to nearly $1,350,000 and more than $1,000,000 came from reserves the athletic department had accumulated over the past 20 years. The gifts came from three basis sources. More than 700 individuals and companies, contributing $1,000 or more each, accounted for just under $1,100,000.

The Autzen Foundation of Portland, Ore., contributed more than $250,000 and the stadium is named for the foundation founder, Thomas J. Autzen. Nearly 800 Stadium Builders, who contributed from $100 to $1,000 accounted for another $90,000 of the total.

Prepared by Big Ten Service Bureau

The next big Ohio State alumni gathering will be held Monday morning.

636 strong.

We're proud to say there are 636 Buckeye graduates working with us. They have interesting, responsible positions all over the world.

Some Ohio State students know GM, too. By way of the GM Scholarship Plan. Ohio State University has participated in the program since it was established in 1955. Altogether, GM has awarded more than 5,000 scholarships to students at 250 colleges and universities.

636 Ohio State grads make for a lot of Buckeye spirit at GM. So go Ohio State! We'll see you Monday morning.

It's GM people who make the GM mark of excellence

What's so great about ROTC?

Check 'em.

☐ Great opportunity. You earn a commission while you earn your college degree. Graduate—you start at the top. Fulfill your military obligation as an Army officer. With officer's pay. Officer's privileges.

☐ Great advantages. Employers prefer a college graduate with service as an officer. Pay more to get him. Because he's a trained, experienced leader. Can handle heavier responsibilities.

☐ Great success. From the 5% of college men who had ROTC training have come 24% of our state governors, 28% of executives earning $100,000 to $325,000 per year, 10% of Congress, 15% of our ambassadors.

☐ Great guys. ROTC men are campus leaders—in ROTC, athletics, extracurricular activities. And they do better scholastically than non-ROTC students.

☐ Great extras. $50 per month in junior and senior years. Scholarships for outstanding students. Free flight training at over 125 colleges. Extra social activities—military balls, honor societies, bands, rifle teams.

Any way you look at it, there's a lot more going for you when you're in ROTC.

Your future, your decision...
choose Army ROTC.

Ohio Staters Mark 35th Anniversary

Commemorating its history of service to the University, Ohio Staters, Inc., is celebrating its 35th anniversary this weekend.

All of the group's alumni have been invited to return to campus for the occasion with a special banquet scheduled at the Jai-Lai this evening.

Since its founding during the 1933-34 school year, Ohio Staters has served the campus community with projects ranging from the design of the University Crest in 1939 to the Pop Concert spectacular at St. John Arena last night, featuring Simon and Garfunkel.

During a period such as last year, Ohio Staters was involved in a wide variety of projects, touching nearly every area of the campus.

At the football games, fans will see Ohio Staters members raising funds for the group's projects by selling seat cushions before the game and OSU Marching Band records following the contest.

Thousands saw the tops in entertainment last year as Ohio Staters presented Bill Cosby. Over the years, Ohio Staters has offered the campus Bob Hope, Peter, Paul and Mary, Louis Armstrong, the Four Seasons, Henry Mancini, and the Mamas and Papas.

In the Distinguished Speakers Series last year, Ohio Staters presented Sen. Mark O. Hatfield and Florida Governor Claude R. Kirk, while in the past, House Republican Leader Gerald Ford, Sen. Wayne Morse, Gen. Earle Wheeler, Sen. Barry M. Goldwater, and news commentator David Brinkley were brought to campus.

The other major Ohio Staters' projects last year included: student ski trips, "Introduction to Columbus" booklets for all freshmen and new students, a spring scholarship banquet for the top students in all of the undergraduate colleges, operation of the "Rally Wagon" campus sound truck, a cash contribution to the Student Leadership Endowment Fund and European Charter Flights during the summer.

Another Stater project, the Presidents'

Lounge in the Ohio Union, was dedicated last year in honor of the University's presidents.

A special Ohio Staters' project last year was the "welcome back" festivities for the OSU basketball team following its third-place finish in the NCAA tournament. The program was emceed by Ohio Staters president as over 4000 fans attended, including Ohio Governor James A. Rhodes.

On the renovation of the Buckeye Grove, Ohio Staters planted more trees last spring, while further expansion and improvement is planned for this section which honors the Buckeye All-Americans in football.

The past projects for the physical improvement of Ohio State include picnic tables along the Olentangy River, a student activities trailer on the Oval, and a commemorative stone and plaque at the site of the Five Brothers trees on the Oval.

When the Buckeyes went to the Rose Bowl in 1954 and 1957, Ohio Staters organized the trains that carried over 2300 students to California, while Ohio Staters helped revive the flash card section into the present "Block O" organization.

Ohio Staters' membership includes, at the maximum, 36 students, nine faculty and five alumni.

Its student membership dots the campus scene in many areas including Traditions Board (Chairman), Ohio Union Council, Students Assembly (President pro-tem), Senior Class Committee and Council of Fraternity Presidents.

The Ohio Staters membership is represented in the three all-campus honoraries—Romophos, Bucket and Dipper, and Sphinx while past officers of Freshman Senate are now Ohio Staters.

The faculty-alumni membership includes several professors and deans. Along the sporting line, the membership ranges from the marching band director, to a Big Ten football official, to the man who tells the fans over the PA, "It's first down and ten".

Break your beard in right.

Right now your beard is in the formative stage.

You can shave it with a razor blade like your father does. And each time you do your beard will grow back a little more difficult. Until one day shaving's no longer a chore. It's an agony.

Look no further than your father's face for proof.

But fortunately, you're catching your beard at an early age. You can break it in to be just as shaveable 10 and 20 years from now as it is today.

With a REMINGTON® shaver.

And if you think the kind of shave we're selling won't be close enough for you, you're wrong.

Our new blades are sharper than anything that's been in an electric shaver before. And there's a dial that lets you adjust them for your skin and beard.

What's more, you can dial a REMINGTON electric shaver into a sideburn trimmer.

Admittedly, it costs more to buy our electric shaver than a razor and some blades.

But it's a good investment.

These next few years will determine how you and your beard will get along for the rest of your lives. ⁺SPERRY RAND™ ©1960, SPERRY RAND CORP.

MISSION IMPOSSIBLE

Situation and Music

Are you ready? In ten seconds the tape recorder will self-destruct. Your Mission is Impossible.

Bonnie and Clyde found themselves with an impossible mission.

What happens when two unlikely candidates find themselves running for President? It's an Impossible Dream.

Out of chaos, the mission is to make order. Perhaps the mission is impossible. It might be a kind of Classical Gas.

We're proud...

that pHisoHex® has been selected as the antibacterial wash to be used by the U.S. Team for the 1968 Olympic Games!

A winning athlete takes special care of his skin. Above all, he protects it against bacteria that can cause infections and lead to missed practice sessions and games.

If you've ever tried to play with an infected blister on your heel or an abscess on your finger, then you know the role of healthy skin in sports. And that's why pHisoHex is an important part of an athlete's daily health routine. pHisoHex is America's leading liquid antibacterial skin cleanser in homes and in hospitals. Used regularly in place of soap, pHisoHex produces a superclean skin and builds up an invisible antibacterial film of hexa-chlorophene to protect your skin against germs between washings.

And if you have problem skin, pHisoHex is often valuable. The antibacterial film it leaves on your face will ward off blemish-infecting bacteria. pHisoHex also helps to soften and wash away blackheads.

Use pHisoHex, the skin cleanser of winning athletes.

Made by Winthrop Laboratories, 90 Park Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10016. Available in drugstores in 5 oz. and 16 oz. plastic squeeze bottles.

How you can "join" America's Olympic Team

You can be there at the Mexico City Olympic Games as a welcome contributor to the Olympic Fund. And be proud of it!

Training, transportation, housing and equipping America's top competitors in the Olympic Games is a major financial task. Because the United States Team is maintained almost entirely by public subscription, without government subsidy of any sort, the interest and support of every American is needed to reach the $3,500,000 goal.

If you haven't already done so, "join" in the Olympic movement now. Fill out the attached coupon, with your check for $5.00 or more and mail — today. In acknowledgment, the United States Olympic Committee will send you the handsome men's tie bar (by Danté) illustrated below. Or, if you prefer, you may select a women's bar pin with safety catch of the same design. For a $10.00 contribution, you will receive two gifts of your choice.

Isaly's Wonderful World of Ice Cream

IN 1910, our Founder, William Isaly, first made Ice Cream by hand-churning fresh cream and sugar in a wooden tub packed with ice and salt. Today, we freeze and package Ice Cream in our modern plants using the finest and most expensive ingredients, the strictest laboratory controls, and the skillful know-how of experienced employees. The result is an Ice Cream of fine quality and creamy goodness that is truly distinctive.

Pine Mountain Observatory Dome

University of Oregon has new Observatory

The dedication of a new astronomical observatory by the University of Oregon last September has placed the University in the position to make significant contributions to the scientific study of the moon and stars.

The observatory, located on top of Pine Mountain near Bend, houses a 24-inch reflector telescope with a radio-telephone link from the mountain to the computer facilities on the Eugene campus which provides almost instantaneous analysis of data.

Facilities at the new site include a two-story concrete block building with an 18-foot dome for the telescope, an office and living quarters for the director and his assistants, and utilities.

With the microwave relay facilities, the computer can reduce raw data from a night of observation and return it by teletype from the University to Pine Mountain within twenty minutes, a process which otherwise would take nearly twenty man-hours.

Dr. E. G. Ebbighausen, professor of physics and astronomy at the University is director of the observatory.

One of the number of projects which he is ready to pursue is the study of "double stars" which revolve about and eclipse each other.

Another exciting project is the study of "quasars." These are distant objects in space which recede at great velocity, and appear to be exploding violently. Little else presently is known about "quasars," but Dr. Ebbighausen and his assistants hope their observations will contribute to this field of research.

A National Science Foundation grant and funds raised by a Central Oregon citizen's committee has made possible the installation of one of the world's most advanced small telescopes in Oregon.

When it's football time...
it's time to improve your lawn

Take advantage of the best time of the whole year to rejuvenate a lawn. The experts always fertilize in the fall, when natural growing conditions are best for the development of good, tight turf. You can literally help grass multiply itself with an October or November feeding. The benefits will be apparent this fall — and in next year's lawn. Truly a once-a-year opportunity!
